Continuous Testing Black Belt Program

Congratulations! You just selected the industry-leading platform for continuous testing of web and mobile applications.

But in order to reach peak productivity, you'll need some assistance from the experts. If you do not already have a highly successful web and mobile automated testing practice? Perfecto can help.

The Perfecto Continuous Testing Black Belt Program was created to allow you to leverage a Perfecto Automated Quality Solutions Architect — or “Black Belt” — as an ongoing member of your team.

Benefits Overview

The most successful automated testing practices share one common trait. They each have at least one Automation Black Belt — someone who understands the fundamental principles that ensure long-term success.

The following are a few examples of questions a Black Belt will answer for you.

- How do we minimize the number of escaped bugs into production?
- Which tests should be automated and which should be manual?
- How should the automation team be staffed, and what skill sets are required?
- How do I properly design automated test cases to run reliably unattended while producing accurate results?
- How do I run parallel automated tests and present meaningful results?
- How do I choose the testing framework(s) most suitable for my needs?
- How do I set up parallel execution to optimize the resources in my device lab?
- How can I leverage my existing assets (test flows, scripts, etc.) with the Perfecto platform?
- How can I run unattended automated tests in my Continuous Integration (CI) cycle?
- How do I cope with turnover in my automation team in a seamless manner?
- How can I keep abreast of technology changes and ensure I'm leveraging industry best practices?
